

► THE GADGET

After an aftershave shaped like a hand grenade, how about a loudspeaker shaped like a bullet? The design of the £4,000-a-pair Meridian Audio M6, launching at this week's Consumer Electronics Show in Las Vegas, gives it the performance of a box speaker four times its size. Sceptical? Range Rover and McLaren aren't: both use Meridian in their new cars. meridian-audio.com

